

CLASS ACTION PROPOSED AGAINST THE DIOCESE OF MONTREAL

Potential compensation for victims

Have you been the victim of sexual assault by a member of the clergy or by employees or volunteers under the responsibility of the Diocese of Montreal?

The following regions are included:

Island of Montreal
Laval
Repentigny
Le Gardeur
Saint-Sulpice
L'Assomption

On April 3, 2019, a class action was filed in the Superior Court of the District of Montreal against the Diocese of Montreal under number 500-06-000992-194.

The representative of all members is A.B., who was sexually assaulted by a priest of the Diocese of Montreal.

By registering for the class action, you may be eligible for possible compensation for what you have been through.

The parties, having expressed their intention to find an out-of-court settlement, jointly applied to the Superior Court of Quebec for authorization to publish this notice to determine how many people are potentially part of the group targeted by this class action. This information is essential in order to establish the potential compensation amounts and promote a possible out-of-court settlement between the parties.

Register within 60 days of posting this notice.

If you do not register within this delay, you will not lose any rights. However, in the case of a settlement, you will have to register with counsel for the group to be eligible to receive compensation.

Registration is free and confidential.
